Transforming a difficult child...into a successful child.

Intense Doesn't Have To Mean Difficult

What you have learned so far as a parent works great for about 80% of children. Unfortunately those wonderful parenting skills are agitating for the intense child and can result in the child being more uncontrolled.

- Does taking away things work?
- Do conventional time-outs work?
- Does arguing work?
- Do lectures work?

Parenting intense children is a different challenge. Intense children perceive that there is more relationship and more energy flowing to them when things are not going right. That is why traditional parenting techniques are not effective.

Parents are the key to any child's success.

With your new found approach to parenting your child can learn to seek your attention, love and affection in more positive and successful ways. Your child will begin to:

- feel more confident
- make wiser choices
- gain power and control over his intensity
- seek more positive behaviors

As a parent you have the greatest impact on the life of your child.

Learning new parenting skills that address the complexities of intense children is one of the most important and effective approaches that a parent can take in dealing with the conflicts. Our certified trainers will teach you techniques designed by national expert Howard Glasser and the Nurtured Heart Approach. In a very short time, you will begin to see that practicing your new skills is very rewarding for both you and your child. If you have an intense child in your life... you can't afford to miss this opportunity!

The approach is effective with:

- Difficult Behavioral Issues
- ADHD
- Reactive Attachment Disorder
- Oppositional Defiant Disorder
